

Just say Hires
if you want the genuine
—in bottles for the home
at soda fountains and on draught—

192nd DIVIDEND

Office of The Norwich Savings Society
Norwich, Conn., June 5, 1920.
The Directors of this Society have declared out of the earnings of the current six months a semi-annual dividend at the rate of FOUR PER CENT, per annum, payable to depositors entitled thereto on and after July 15, 1920.

COSTELLO LIPPITT, Treasurer.

Bulletin's Pattern Service

3010
A GOOD COMFORTABLE APRON
MODELS.
This style is nice for percale, lawn, gingham, chambray, drill or khaki. The apron is in one piece, with four straps that cross over the back and are buttoned at the waistline.
The pattern is cut in four sizes: Small, 32-34; medium, 34-36; large, 36-38; and extra large, 44-46 inches, bust measure. Size medium requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch material.
A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or one and two cent stamps.
Order through The Bulletin Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.
True friends are those we feel like looking because they point out our faults.

WE ADVERTISE EXACTLY AS IT IS

A MARK-DOWN SALE

in June is unusual, but it is happening here now.

Too large a stock is the principal reason, but there are several other reasons, too. Never mind, here are the prices of suits now—

- $52.50 FOR $65.00 SUITS
- $48.50 FOR $60.00 SUITS
- $44.50 FOR $55.00 SUITS
- $39.50 FOR $50.00 SUITS
- $34.50 FOR $45.00 SUITS
- $32.50 FOR $40.00 SUITS
- $29.50 FOR $35.00 SUITS

PALM BEACH AND KEEP-KOOL SUITS
$15—$18—$20

Murphy & McGarry
207 Main Street

COAL

John A. Morgan & Son

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, June 25, 1920.

VARIOUS MATTERS

June 25 is St. William's Day. This is almanac day for July. Light vehicle lamps at 8.55 this evening.

Flora's night is being observed by the granges. Over 200 Norwich children will attend Chautauqua. How about yours?—adv.

Flocks of starlings are feasting on the first cherries which are falling from the trees. Choice fresh fish, many kinds. Boat will arrive this morning, Osgood's Wharf.—adv.

Sunday next is communion Sunday for the Holy Name society of St. Patrick's parish.

The hay season will be at least ten days later this summer in comparison with former years.

Native strawberries—Preston City products—sold at 5c in Norwich stores Wednesday.

After the boat races attend the dance at Maenhercher hall, Taftville.—adv.

The B. Harbor express is running through Norwich are in two sections Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Wednesday night three sections ran through.

Thursday was the twelfth anniversary of the death of President Grover Cleveland at 68 years of age.

A patient for Mr. Elliott, Mrs. Theron Clapp, who is in the hospital in Williamsville, is able to sit up a little while.

Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm at Chautauqua Wednesday evening.—adv.

The Natchaug river at Chaplin is full to the edge of its banks. Something which seldom happens at this time of the year.

At Thompson, William Miller, has resigned as mail carrier after a hard year of severe weather and irregular train service.

Miss Susan R. Collins who has been teaching at Quaker Hill, has gone to her home at Tompaug, R. I., for the summer vacation.

It has been announced at Trinity Methodist church where will be no Sunday evening preaching service during July and August.

Hear the kiddies band on Tuesday afternoon and evening Academy campus.—adv.

Mrs. Henry Hill and daughter Lois, who have been in South America for the past two years, are in North Woodstock visiting Mrs. C. A. Paine.

A Warrenville resident, O. P. Durkee Brown, '93, was in Providence to attend the reunion of his class and the commencement exercises of the university.

The Bulletin is unable to use a number of personal items in correspondence because they are imperfect, omitting the places from which visitors come, etc.

Norwich millinery dealers have been notified that the fashion show of the Retail Millinery Association of America will be held at the Hotel Astor, New York, Aug. 4.

As an example of decorative tree-planting a group of twelve and blooming shrubs in the grounds at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Gale, Pinehurst on Washington street, is a picture just now.

The United States civil service commission announces for July 21 an examination for clerks, males under 45 years of age, for vacancies in the Panama Canal service at $116 a month and upward.

Chautauqua will open on the Academy campus tomorrow. Tickets at Cranston's.—adv.

At a meeting of the Progressive Missionary club of the Central Baptist church Wednesday, final plans were made for the annual outing, July 7th, at the Neptune Park cottage of Mrs. Albert T. Utley.

A Hot Springs, Va., item reads: Misses Margaret and Mercer Dunlop who were at the Pillars with their mother Mrs. Archibald McGree of Washington, have gone to New London for the Vail-Harvard boat races.

Motorists who pass signals set against them at railroad crossings in the state will forfeit their licenses without a hearing, according to an order issued by State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Robbins B. Stockell.

Motor boat owners whose craft are rated below five tons are subject to pay to the federal government an annual tax of $10, due on or before July 1, 1920, and must make returns to the collector of customs at Hartford.

A. C. Kibbe, of Ellington, has sold his farm to two men from New York, who will take possession the first of July. It is one of the finest dairy farms in that vicinity and has been in the Kibbe family for more than a half century.

Chautauqua opens tomorrow at 3 p. m. Chautauqua season ticket sale closes tomorrow noon.—adv.

A former Norwich boy, Oliver R. Wolf, a recent graduate of Worcester Tech. school of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wolf of Putnam, has an appointment in Washington, D. C., in the chemistry department. He will take up his new duties July 1.

Connecticut will face a milk famine during August and September, according to a prediction made by Deputy Commissioner on Dairy and Food H. C. Daniels, because of the startling increase in the wholesale price of beef during the past two weeks.

Webster may again be connected by trolley with the Grosvenordales. The Massachusetts town and the merchants therein have been actively engaged in trying to bring about the resumption of trolley service, which stopped following the strike and the big storm in February.

News comes from Portland, Oregon, where the imperial council of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine in session, that on the journey from San Francisco to Portland the special train to which the Connecticut cars were attached was one of twenty sections of a fast train between those cities.

A barrack bag which Joseph E. Cushman, of Stonington, had to leave at headquarters near Grande, France, when the 26th division of which he was a member was ordered to stem the German onslaught at Chemin des Dames, in April 1918, has just been returned to him, with contents intact.

The state department of public health has communicated with the health authorities in the state, with a view to taking measures to decrease the death rate from typhoid fever. Last year the rate was 3.8 per 1,000 of the population. The rate represented 56 deaths. The previous year the rate was 5.1.

To honor South Coventry's patriot, the Nathan Hale beach club, has organized to take over a strip of beach front at Halesite, L. I., because it is believed to be the place where Nathan Hale was captured by British soldiers during the Revolutionary War. The club will erect a memorial to Hale.

It may keep some of the city visitors from coming to Connecticut because the New York vacation playground season of the Department of Education is to open July 1 and the playgrounds will be in daily use Monday to Friday, inclusive, from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. until Aug. 7. There will be 175 playgrounds.

The White Ribbon Banner memorializes Clara Storrs Freeman, widow of Rev. J. O. Barrows, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dwight Avery, of Norwich, at a life-long member of the W. C. T. U., noting that friends and the community are the richer for the legacy of faith, hope and love which she has left them.

PERSONALS

Archibald Mitchell, 4th, has been in New York on business this week.

Miss Veronica Holston of Mount St. Joseph Academy is at her home on One-co street for the summer recess.

W. H. Deech of Auburn, N. Y., is employed in the freight house of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Mrs. Herbert Hanna and son Marvin Hanna of Main street, left Wednesday to pass the summer at their cottage, Sec-dahamk, Stony Creek.

Miss Mary Carey and Miss Agnes Sheehan, of Norwich are guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hickson of Newtown, Conn.

Mrs. James LeRiche and her grandson, William Beckwith, have returned to Potter Hill, R. I., after a visit among friends and other relatives.

After visiting her sister, Mrs. Henry Creighton, of Hanover, Mrs. George W. Harris, of Salem road, East Great Plain, is visiting in Hartford for a time.

Milton S. Freeman, brother of Congressman Richard S. Freeman of New London, is under treatment at a sanatorium at Stamford for a nervous breakdown.

Carl Parker has returned from the Huntington Preparatory school, Boston, and is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Parker, on Phillips avenue, Laurel Hill, for the summer.

Among Norwich druggists who attended the Pharmaceutical Association meeting at Madison Wednesday were George G. Engler, James W. Mara and Frank A. Sisk. Mr. Sisk remained over the two days session, returning Thursday.

Writing certificates were awarded Thursday afternoon at Mt. Pleasant school as follows:
Rosina Adams, 100; Helen Henrietta Cuprak, 100; Isabelle Marguerite Mulcahy, 100; Frieda Elizabeth Johnson, 100.

Much interest has been manifested in the Reading Circle this year and many books have been read. A Reading Circle diploma is awarded at the end of the fifth year if four books on the reading list have been read in the third, fourth and fifth grades. For four additional books in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades red, blue and green seals are awarded. While for an additional twelve books in the eighth grade a gold seal is awarded. Winners of the green and gold seals were as follows:
Isabelle Mulcahy, Lena Loring, Fannie Safenowitz, Sarah Markoff, Frieda Johnson, Polly Mitchell, Helen Cuprak, Jacob Lerner, James Kelley, Henry Bryant, Louis Abramson.

Green seals: Katherine Lynch, Beatrice Ahlman, Robert Montgomery, Marion Larsen, Blanche Freeman.

Blue and green seals: Raymond Robinson, Celia Charon, Gertrude Hathaway, Lillian Sandberg.

Red and blue seals: Sara Nowick.

BOMB IS EXPLODED IN CELLAR IN WATERBURY
Waterbury, Conn., June 25.—A bomb exploded early this morning in the cellar of a house at 29-1-2 Railroad Hill street, which was occupied by many workers who had refused to join the local strike.

WEDDINGS
Rice—Shorter.
Trenor A. Rice of Canterbury and Miss Edna Shorter of Canterbury were united in marriage Thursday in this city by John H. Barnes, J. P. Mr. Rice who is a native of New Rochelle, N. Y., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Trenor, who is employed in Canterbury as an automobile mechanic.

The bride has been a school teacher in Canterbury and her father, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shorter, she was born in Brooklyn, N. Y.

FUNERAL
Mrs. Rhoda M. Miner.
Funeral services for Mrs. Rhoda M. Miner were held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late home in Boscawen, with many relatives and friends present. Burial was in the cemetery of Boscawen. The services were conducted by Rev. Charles W. Hanna, pastor of the Boscawen Congregational church. Bearers were Albert Hewitt, Gilbert S. Raymond, Albert Bailey and Edward Bishop. Burial was in the Johnson cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Hanna conducted a committal service at the grave.

C. A. Gager, Jr. was in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Miner died last Monday following an illness of only a few days. She was born in Boscawen 38 years ago. Her husband, Gardner and Mary Waterman Avery, and has always made her home in Boscawen. For many years Mrs. Miner had taught in the Boscawen school. In Boscawen about 17 years ago she was united in marriage with J. Henry Miner, who died in 1909. She is survived by her mother, son, Edward, and her brother, Albert T. Avery, and three nieces.

Fine Catch of Lake Trout
With a catch of 18 large lake trout, Alderman C. V. Pendleton, Dr. J. J. Donohue and Peter Sella returned on Thursday morning from a few days' fishing at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H. The fish were on exhibition Thursday in the window of the Boscawen store on Broadway, and four of the 18 weighed between five and six pounds while the others weigh well over two pounds. The party was on the water on Sunday and experienced very little difficulty in traveling by automobile.

Fishermen to Meet
Norwich fishermen who belong to the Norwich fish and game promoting association are to have important business come up before them at a meeting to be held Saturday evening at 8:30 at the Main street store of the secretary, Clinton E. Lane.

After Getting One's Bill
The city of Chicago, which was unsuccessful in its efforts to obtain a $1,000,000 loan from a banking syndicate, should be able to get the money from some hotel keeper.—Indianapolis News.

A Grim Query
It is a grim query whether the drop in food prices through Middle Europe is caused by a change in supply or in demand.—Boston Herald.

All news isn't as black as it is printed.

Ma knows how to make our house headquarters for boys; she gives 'em Post Toasties
—says Bobby

Gasoline at 20 Cents.
Gasoline users enjoyed the rare experience of buying "gas" for 20 cents a gallon here Thursday afternoon. The 100-gallon car of $900 gallons of gasoline consigned to Worcester was condemned by the New Haven railroad inspectors and not allowed to proceed any farther than this city. It was set at the North Main street crossing near the gas plant and the gas was sold off at 20 cents a gallon to anyone who wanted to come after it.

The news spread fast and long lines of cars waited their turn to buy "gas."

Arrested on Complaint.
Tony Longo was arrested on Thursday afternoon on complaint of John Bowman, claiming that Longo had hit the Bowman carriage as he was passing it with his motorcycle. Longo failed to have his operator's license with him when arrested.

PROPOSE CITY RECREATION PARK

The need of a city recreation park was expressed by Councilman C. A. Hazberg at the adjourned meeting of the council of common council on Thursday evening. Councilman Hazberg stated that the matter had been agitated in the city and that he thought it would be an excellent thing if the council would take it up. He said that the city at present has no centrally located recreation grounds and that in his opinion the Battlegrounds was the most fitting place for such a park. Mr. Hazberg's suggestion was a able to get along without another park.

Councilman Crooks rose to a point of order and said that he believed that the council should not act at this time as the matter had not been presented through the police commissioners who had the matter in hand. Alderman Pendleton then withdrew his motion.

During the meeting Mayor Lerou said that the people of Norwich were asked by the Spanish War Veterans to display their flags for the next two days in honor of the veterans who met in this city at this time. Mayor Lerou also read an invitation from the committee in charge of the community celebration of Greenville for the council to attend. The invitation was accepted. The celebration takes place on July 5th.

The annual report of the chief of police in the journal included his report of the water department.

Water Department Report.
The report of the water department shows a balance on hand May 15, 1919, of $15,422.53; receipts from May 15, 1919, to May 15, 1920, $92,433.69; total $107,856.22. Disbursements: Invoices and pay rolls, May 15, 1919, to May 15, 1920, $38,750.95; paid to city treasurer May 15, 1919, to May 15, 1920, $37,738.24; total $94,489.39, leaving a balance on hand May 15, 1920, of $13,366.92.

Balance of accounts payable April 30, 1920, $2,895.36; balance of accounts receivable April 30, 1920, $2,004.34; uncollected schedule water rate April 30, 1920, $1,474.18; total $6,374.84. Uncollected rate April 30, 1920, $2,656.89; uncollected sprinkling water rate April 30, 1920, $38.60.

The meeting adjourned at 8:45 until the first Monday in July.

RYAN BO CONTEST EXPULSION FROM N. Y. STOCK EXCHANGE
New York, June 24.—Expelled today from the New York Stock Exchange, Allan A. Ryan, principal figure in the alleged Stutz Motor corner last March, tonight announced he would carry his case to the courts and stand or fall on the merits of the case.

There was a flurry of excitement at the opening of the exchange this morning when the governing committee, which yesterday had decided to expel Ryan from the floor, announced that the matter was referred to the public works committee.

At first Mr. Ryan was silent. Then he issued a brief statement, announcing that he would stand or fall on the merits of the case. He prepared a long newspaper advertisement containing this paragraph:

"For such of the injustice orked up on me as is remediable in the courts, I intend to seek appropriate redress. But the blot upon the dignity of the great institution of the New York Stock Exchange, beginning with their first activity in the Stutz Motor case, grown to such proportions that it is now indelible."

A statement was interpreted on the floor as a condemnation of the Stutz case, which has denounced the exchange investigation as "star chamber proceedings" would bring $10,000,000 suits against the exchange and some of its officers.

PUPILS WIN MEDALS AND CERTIFICATES FOR ESSAYS
At the public school graduation exercises Thursday afternoon was made of the medal for the best essay in the essay contest for eighth grade pupils conducted by the National Society of Colonial Dames.

Medals were awarded to Dorothy N. Pasnik and John R. Lockwood, both pupils of Broadway school, and certificates were awarded as follows: Charlotte J. Fellows, West Town street school; Edward S. Cushman, Boscawen street school; J. MacComb, Eleanor C. Edwards, Veronica Weyant, Richard Day Bunnell, George A. Letender, George Owen Geer and Miss Dora Dineen, Broadway school; Mae Breckinridge, Greenville school; and Isadore Cohen, West Town street school.

Twenty patriotic subjects which they chose from a list suggested by the Colonial Dames for the purpose of increasing and promoting the spirit of patriotism.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS CONVENTION OPENING HERE
Spanish War Veterans from all sections of the state will gather in Norwich today for the annual convention of the United Spanish War Veterans of the Department of Connecticut which opens this (Friday) evening in the Town hall. The programme will open at 8 o'clock and the address of welcome will be made by John S. Blackmer, M. D., of Griswold Camp No. 6, of this city. The response will be by Department Commander William Bascely of New London. Mayor Lerou will deliver an address and a address as will also the commander-in-chief, William Jones, U. S. W. V.

The convention will conclude Saturday at the 17th annual commencement of the Connecticut U. S. W. V. The auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans' organization will hold its 11th annual convention today and Saturday. The sessions will be held in the Old Fellows' building on Main street.

JUDGE WILL CHARGE JURY IN COMMON PLEAS CASE
The case of Myer Blumenthal against Henry Grumko, both of this city, was on the trial Thursday in the common pleas court here before Judge C. B. Waller and a jury. When court adjourned at 4:30 in the afternoon, the evidence was made by the defense. In suit brought by Joseph Walkowski against Kocjo judgment for $322.25 was returned against Kocjo, and Grumko was on his bond for $500 but has not yet appeared in court, which was issued on Oct. 28, 1919.

Accused of Running Money Wheel.
Morris Ascherbach of Bridgeport was arrested by Officers Matthew Delaney and Elmer Allen on the East Side on Thursday evening for running a money wheel. Sempel Applebaum of Philadelphia was also arrested for playing the wheel. The money wheel is a device upon which a local man. The two were released later in the evening under bonds of $100 each for appearance in court this (Friday) morning.

Horse Disappears from Pasture.
William Robinson of West Main street reported to the police on Thursday evening that he had lost his horse from the pasture near his house. Mr. Robinson said that the horse had been there Wednesday night, but on Thursday morning the animal had disappeared.

DIED
COULOME—In Lawrence hospital, New London, June 24, 1920, Ferdinand Fardina Coulome, aged 62 years.

OBITUARY

Ferdinand F. Coulome.
Ferdinand Fardina Coulome, 62, of Baltic, died Thursday morning in Lawrence hospital, New London, where he had been under treatment for some time. He was a weaver by occupation and had been employed in the Baltic mill. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Georgias Allyn Brand.
Georgias Allyn Brand, 74, a resident of Glasgow, died in this city on Thursday following an illness of six weeks with heart trouble. Mr. Brand had been in poor health for nearly a year, but had come to this city for treatment about six weeks ago.

He was born in Ledyard, the son of Christopher and Temperance Allyn Brand. He has followed the calling of a farmer and the greater part of his life has been spent in Glasgow and vicinity. In 1874 he was united in marriage with Miss Abbie Scranton of Union, Conn., who survives him. He also leaves one daughter, Mrs. Edgar Clark of Glasgow, and three sons, Russell, Nathan and Theodore Brand of Norwich, two sisters, Mrs. Henry A. Phelon and Miss Susan A. Brand of West Springfield, Mass., and a brother, Julius A. Brand of Norwich.

Martin M. Whittemore.
Martin M. Whittemore, treasurer of the Norwich and Worcester Railroad, and for many years a resident of this city, died suddenly at his home in Lancaster, Mass., on Thursday morning. Mr. Whittemore had been in poor health for several weeks but the end came unexpectedly.

Mr. Whittemore was born in Lancaster, Mass., on February 5, 1846, the son of Rev. Benjamin Whittemore and Mandana Ballou Whittemore. Rev. Mr. Whittemore was for many years pastor of the Universalist church.

Martin M. Whittemore came to Norwich at 5 years of age, with his parents, attending the public schools in the Central district and subsequently the Norwich Free Academy, but continued his education at Clinton High school and Lancaster Academy. Mr. Whittemore had been associated with the Norwich and Worcester Railroad company for over 40 years, entering the company's office in 1880, and in 1873 that of Colonel Perkins then treasurer of the company. He served under Colonel Perkins for 14 years.

Working up through the various positions of the railroad office in September, 1887, he was made assistant auditor of the New York and New England system and transferred to Boston, where he discharged the responsible duties of that office.

He was elected treasurer of the Norwich and Worcester Railroad company and assumed his duties April 1, 1899, which position he has since filled. Having succeeded E. T. Clapp as treasurer of the company, who held the position for six months after the death of Colonel Perkins, Mr. Whittemore was the third in the history of the road to have the custody of its funds. In addition to his duties as treasurer of this company he was in November, 1914, elected treasurer of the Norwich and New York Transportation company to succeed Oliver L. Johnson.

He served 17 years on the board of education of the Central school district, a portion of the time as its clerk, and always took a keen interest in educational work. He was naturally one of the best known railroad officials of the state.

In this city on March 11, 1870, Mr. Whittemore was married by Rev. Daniel Merriam to Miss Maria C. Treadway, the daughter of the late F. W. Treadway. She died later and Mr. Whittemore married his sister-in-law, Miss Frances J. Treadway. Rev. Dr. Pratt performing the ceremony on June 25, 1901.

He was the last of an immediate family. A brother, Benjamin B. Whittemore, was in the insurance business here and another brother, N. H. Whittemore, was principal of the Broadway Grammar school for a long time. Mrs. Whittemore survives her husband.

Mr. Whittemore was a member of Somerset lodge, No. 24, F. and A. M., and of the Church of the Good Shepherd. He was very courteous in manner, capable as an official and is held in kindly remembrance by many Norwich people.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY
R. Selden Bacon of New Haven has been visiting in Norwich and Mrs. William A. Allen.

For several minutes Mr. Abbott could make no response, but when he had recovered composure he expressed his warm appreciation of those who had so completely surprised him with this gift, summing it up when he said that he thought the congregation of the United Church was composed of the most wonderful people in the world.

AMERICAN LEGION POST
MAKING FINANCIAL PLANS
The American legion in charge of the financial campaign of the Fletcher post, No. 4, American Legion, is planning to launch late in the summer, held a brief meeting Thursday evening at the post rooms on Stoughton street, at which preliminary plans were discussed. No definite action was taken at the meeting, which took the form of a general discussion. The next meeting of the committee will be held at the regular meeting of the post on Friday evening, July 2.

Commander E. C. Herrick, who is chairman of the meeting, presided Thursday evening.

ROBINSON FAMILY REUNION
AT FRANKLIN HOMESTEAD
The 36th annual reunion of the Robinson family, descendants of Arad and Laura Robinson, was held at the Robinson Homestead in Franklin, Thursday, June 24. Five generations were represented at the reunion and included in the attendance were many from Virginia, Kentucky, Vermont and many cities within the state.

The day was spent with readings, games and music. A delightful dinner was served during the day. During the past year there have been four births in the Robinson family and only one death.

J. C. WITTER TO ACT AS STARTING JUDGE AT COUNTY FAIR
Speed Secretary Albert J. Bailey has engaged J. C. Witter of Danielson to act as starting judge for the horse races at the Fall Town meeting on the 1st of this year. Mr. Witter is well known throughout eastern Connecticut and Rhode Island as a starting judge, having officiated at all of the Windham county fairs for several years, and is also well and favorably known as an auctioneer.

NEW LEATHER CONCERN
LOCATING IN GREENEVILLE
A new leather concern is to locate in this city in the Greenville section. This concern is moving machinery and other materials to this city in auto trucks. The concern, which comes here from New York, to employ men to make hands on foot, later to increase to 25.

Accused of Running Money Wheel.
Morris Ascherbach of Bridgeport was arrested by Officers Matthew Delaney and Elmer Allen on the East Side on Thursday evening for running a money wheel. Sempel Applebaum of Philadelphia was also arrested for playing the wheel. The money wheel is a device upon which a local man. The two were released later in the evening under bonds of $100 each for appearance in court this (Friday) morning.

Horse Disappears from Pasture.
William Robinson of West Main street reported to the police on Thursday evening that he had lost his horse from the pasture near his house. Mr. Robinson said that the horse had been there Wednesday night, but on Thursday morning the animal had disappeared.

DIED
COULOME—In Lawrence hospital, New London, June 24, 1920, Ferdinand Fardina Coulome, aged 62 years.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

DOES DEFECTIVE VISION MAKE YOU IRRITABLE?
No human ailment causes as much irritability as failing eyesight. The only way to flood your soul with sunshine is through your eye windows. Let us lift the shades of your vision and give you a new outlook on life and its wonderful possibilities.

C. A. SPEAR OPTOMETRIST
218 MAIN STREET
NORWICH, CONN.

A Little of Both
Sir Auckland Golden says that the next 50 years will either be the most glorious or the most disastrous in the history of mankind. Dr. a little of both like the other half-centuries.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

Guests of a